

MRCI's Commitment to good practice and transparency

Charities Governance Code

Migrant Rights Centre Ireland complies with the Charities Governance Code, a code including six principles of governance with which all charitable organisations in Ireland must comply. The Charities Governance Code is principles-based and has been designed by the sector, for the sector. We have completed the mandatory compliance form and review annually to ensure continued compliance.

Our Registered Charity Number (RCN) is: 20062873

Guidelines for Charitable Organisations on Fundraising from the Public

We are committed to establishing and maintaining good relations with all our fundraising supporters. We are signed up to and compliant with the Charities Regulator voluntary 'Guidelines for Charitable Organisations on Fundraising from the Public' which are reflected in our own Donor Charter and our Statement of Public Compliance which you can find on our website.

Statement of Recommended Practice (SORP)

All the audited accounts of Migrant Rights Centre Ireland are prepared in accordance with the Companies Act 2014 and, voluntarily in the absence of statutory reporting standards for charities in Ireland, in accordance with international best practice SORP best practice standard of accountability and transparency for charities [Charities Statement of Recommended Practice SORP (FRS 102)].